

Lucas Cavanna Quero

Level & Game Designer

ABOUT ME

Experienced game developer with four years of background in the industry. Deeply passionate, creative and proactive about gamemaking, evidenced both by successful solo projects and AAA experience at Ubisoft.

Equally comfortable working independently and collaborating with others, finding joy in the creative process of bringing ideas to life within a team setting.

Very excited about the potential of videogames as an artistic medium to connect people, and how its boundaries can be stretched.
